its publication in full, but we make the following summary: Lewisburg was inundated and much damage done in the vicinty. The steamboat, Trenton, out from Baton Rouge, was capsized and all effects lost. There were 88 bales of bales of cotton and 100 head of cattle aboard. The crew and passengers were saved, and 50 bales of cotton recovered. Many sugar houses were destroyed. The tow boat John Gilmore, from St so short a time death should enter his Louis, was damaged and lost three house and take away the loveliest of barges, with loading, including 79,000 the family, his little boy. Charley had bushels of wheat. The pilot, Wm. E. Buist, was drowned. All other passengers and crew swam ashore. The total loss of the boat is estimated at $125,000. The loss at Baton Rouge from sinking of coal barges was about $7,000. There was great destruction at to sugar houses, dwellings, crops, etc. where the last tribute of respect was about Texas Landing, but no loss of life, paid him. The services were conducted by the Rev. W. B. Stradley, both at the church and grave. Mr. and The cane and rice fields are in a de-
